Be merciful to me, God, because of Your constant love.

Wipe away my sins, because of Your great mercy!

Wash away my evil, and make me clean from my sin!

I recognize my faults; I am always conscious of my sins.

I have sinned against you-only against You, and done what you consider evil.

So you are right in judging me; you are justified in condemning me.

I have been evil from the time I was born; from the day of my birth I have been sinful.

A faithful heart is what you want; fill my mind with your wisdom.

Remove my sin, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.

Let me hear the sounds of joy and gladness; and though you have crushed and broken me, I will be happy once again.

Create a pure heart in me, God, and put a new and loyal spirit in me.

Do not banish me from your presence; do not not take your holy spirit away from me.

Give me again the joy that comes from your salvation, and make my spirit obedient.

Then I will teach sinners your commands, and they will turn back to you.

You do not want sacrifices, or I would offer them; you are not pleased with burnt offerings.

My sacrifice is a submissive spirit, God; a submissive and obedient heart you will not reject. From Psalm 51

I am the good shepherd; I know my own and my own know me, as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep.

And I have other sheep, that are not of this fold; I must bring them also, and they will heed my voice. So there shall be one flock, one shepherd.

When Jesus had spoken these words, He lifted up His eyes to heaven and said, "Father, the hour has come; glorify thy Son that the Son may glorify thee.

"I have manifested thy name to the men whom Thou gavest me out of the world; thine they were, and thou gavest them to me, and they have kept Thy word.

"And now I am no more in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to thee. Holy Father, keep them in thy name which thou hast given me, that they may be one, even as we are one.

"That they may all be one; even as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that thou hast sent me."

For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body so it is with Christ.

For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body-Jews or Greeks, slaves or free-and all were made to drink of one spirit. For the body does not consist of one member but of many.

There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call,

One Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of us all, who is above all and through all and to all. From John 10 & I Corinthians 12, Ephesians 4
