I Corinthians 13

If I speak in the tongues^[a] of men or of angels, but do not have love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal.² If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing.³ If I give all I possess to the poor and give over my body to hardship that I may boast,^[b] but do not have love, I gain nothing.

⁴ Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud.⁵ It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs.⁶ Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth.⁷ It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

⁸ Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away.⁹ For we know in part and we prophesy in part,¹⁰ but when completeness comes, what is in part disappears.¹¹ When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put the ways of childhood behind me.¹² For now we see only a reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.

¹³ And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.

Mullins Presbyterian Church

“The Church Behind the Cross”

This church is a fellowship of people who are trusting in Jesus Christ as Savior, Lord and Friend. We believe the Bible to be the inerrant, written Word of God and the only infallible rule of faith and practice. We believe the system of doctrine taught in the Scriptures is set forth in the Westminster Confession of Faith and the larger and shorter catechisms.

We preach without apology, the changeless gospel of God’s saving grace, the faith which was once delivered to the saints. We would love to have you join us in fellowship. To inquire, please see the pastor or one of the elders at the close of the service.
